Camino Cage Squad Faces Double Threat

With their race horse offense beginning to jell the El Camino Warriors travel to Citrus JC Thursday night and Loyola Saturday.

The Warriors will bring a 3-5 record along when they meet Citrus, after their last second 69-68 loss to College of the Sequoias.

Newly elected team captain Bob Moon sparked the Tribe in the northern city battle with 23 points, followed by Vern Holte's 12 digits.

Highly optimistic over his club's marked improvement, coach Stanich praised the work of Moon and center Bob Cliborn, who has looked real sharp on the defensive boards.

The Tribe, which has never lost a first round decision in four years, will open the Barry slate against Los Angeles City College, Dec. 26 at 12:30.

Last season, the Warriors were drubbed in the second round by Pierce JC.

COURTESY COUNTS

Courteous driving is sensible driving. By slowing down or stopping to let a driver pull out of a parking lot or from the curb, you can avoid a possible traffic conflict.

YIELD, PLEASE

Obstructing the free flow of traffic leads to accidents. That's why vehicles pulling away from the curb or from the side of the road must yield the right-of-way to moving traffic.

SOPH GUARD Gary Nixt will direct El Camino's race horse attack when the Warriors travel to Citrus JC Thursday and Loyola Saturday. Through the Christmas holidays, the Tribe will battle in the Sam Barry tourney.

MICKEY THOMPSON poses with Marley Arrowsmith of Torrance and W. H. Vincent's beautiful Ferrari coupe, the only one of its kind ever built. Car will be on display in Thompson's Auto and Boat Speed Show, Dec. 27 through 30, while Miss Arrowsmith will compete for "Miss World of Speed" beauty title, also in the show.

BOAT SHOW QUEEN—Pretty Julie Barnett 22, former UCLA coed, has been chosen to reign over all activities of the Seventh Annual Southern California Boat Show sponsored by the Southern California Marine Association and scheduled Jan. 18 through 27, at Los Angeles Pan Pacific Auditorium.

The Tournament of Roses Parade is one of the southland's most spectacular events. This year Pacific Telephone is happy to be one of the co-sponsors bringing you full television coverage of it over KTTV, channel 11.

Starting around 6 a.m. New Year's morning, the cameras will bring you a backstage look at the pre-parade activity and preparation of the beautiful flower floats. At 8:45 a.m., they'll start uninterrupted coverage of the entire parade. And following that, around 11 o'clock, there will be the "sleepy-head special"—a rebroadcast of the parade by video tape.

So we hope you'll join us sometime New Year's day for the Rose Parade on KTTV.

On behalf of all of us here at the telephone company, I want to wish you the happiest of Holiday Seasons. We hope the New Year holds many good things in store for you. We've enjoyed serving you this past year, and you can be sure we'll be working to bring you the best possible telephone service in the year to come.
